Chittagong Dt. do not seem to be relevant inasmuch as the present question is about disciplinary powers. The Dy. Comr. 12.6.18.

19) Were are 3 specific points on which orders are necessary. They were raised in the Assn meeting held in June 1917. The existing disciplinary powers vested in the Deputy Comrs are considered inadequate, and it was suggested that the D.C. may be empowered to

1) Dismiss Police Inspectors
2) Suspend Police Inspectors pending enquiry into their conduct, and
3) To transfer all subordinate officers within the District.

Under the Police Regulations, the D.C. may suspend an Inspector whose subordinate Police pending inquiry into any grave complaint against such Inspector and until an order of the Inspector General can be obtained. If the additional power conferred by this section has to be exercised the Regulations may have to be modified or further restrictions may be imposed under the last clause of Section 26, which reads thus

"The exercise of any power conferred by this section shall be subject always to such rules and orders as may be made by Govt in that behalf."

The majority of the D.C. who were consulted are not in favour of a general power of Suspension amount of the police in which the Commissioner.

20) In regard to this I do not think we should be interfered with such powers. The D.G. of Police is for empowering them to appoint Inspectors with the powers of Inspectors in the Dt. These have not been specifically dealt with in the Regulation, and come under the general powers of the Govt. but Govt may frame rules regulating their powers.

21) In British India, D.S. P's are given power to sanction privilege only in cases of absence without leave. Except in Bombay, the power of transfer of Inspectors within the Dt does not seem to have been enjoyed in other Circles.

22) The enquiry appears to go further than the powers may be exercised under the existing enactment may continue. It appears, in present D.G. will also be requested to favour Govt with his views, with information regarding the practice in British India.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.J.528-36/Pol.28-17-1 dated the 16th August 1917 calling for definite proposals about enhanced disciplinary powers to Deputy Commissioners over their subordinates in the Police Department, I have the honour to state that at present Deputy Commissioners have full powers over all officers of and below the grade of Jamedars, subject of course to the usual rights of appeal to the Inspector-General of Police. As regards Police Inspectors there is no authority in the District which can take any notice of irregularities on their part. No authority except the Inspector-General of Police has any power to award them even a black mark. This does not make for discipline or for efficient discharge of duties by these officials. In my opinion therefore it is necessary that Deputy Commissioners should have the following powers in respect of Inspectors and Sub Inspectors in their Districts.

(1) Power to transfer within the district. (~~This~~ a similar power has been given to Deputy Commissioners in the Forest Department as they have power to transfer Range Officers within the District)

(2) Power to award black marks.

(3) Power to award fine up to a maximum of one month's salary.

(4) Power to place under suspension pending enquiry into definite charges of misconduct.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

With reference to your letter No.J.528-36/Pol.28-17-1 dated 16th August 1917, I have the honor to state as follows:-

Section 26 of the Police Regulation gives sufficient power to the Deputy Commissioner to punish Police Officers of and below the grade of Sub-Inspectors.

As regards the Police Inspector, the Deputy Commissioner can suspend him pending an enquiry into charges against him, This power cannot be used frequently for petty offences. The Deputy Commissioner should have power to fine an Inspector for proved misconduct or negligence.

The Deputy Commissioner should also have power to transfer Police Inspectors within his District, as he has got better -- opportunities of judging the capability of Inspectors than the nspector General of Police. Of course the Inspector General an transfer Inspectors outside the District whenever necessary.

The note furnished by the District Superintendent of Police was read together with the existing powers conferred upon the Deputy Commissioner by the Police Regulation. All things considered, I am of opinion that the following enhanced powers may be delegated to the Deputy Commissioner:-

1. Power to appoint Police Head Munshis.
2. Power to grant privilege leave to Inspectors and make temporary arrangements in the District during the period, the fact being intimated to the Inspector General of Police.
3. To effect transfers of Police Inspectors within the District intimating the fact to Inspector General of Police.
4. Power to make necessary distribution of the force within the District, and formally intimate the same to Inspector General of Police.

As regards the power to fine Inspectors, I do not think there is any necessity to change the present rules.

~~K. R. SRINIVASA IYENGAR, Esq., M.A.,~~
Offg. Inspector-General of Police in Mysore.

To

C. S. Balasundaram Iyer Esqr., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, General Department.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No.G.2515/Pol.28-17-11 dated 2-8-1918 inviting my attention to letter No.2877/201 dated 12/14th November 1917 from Mr.K.R.Srinivasiengar my predecessor in office re the enhancement of disciplinary powers of the Deputy Commissioners over their Police subordinates and calling for my views in the matter together with information as to the practice in British India, I have the honor to state that the Collectors in British India exercise no disciplinary powers over the Police officers as they are not heads of the District Police as the Deputy Commissioners are in our State, and that the powers of the Deputy Commissioners are described in section 6, sub section 3 of the Mysore Police Regulation, and that any enlargement of their powers will require legislative sanction. The Inspectors' cadre being a provincial one and the power of appointing them vesting in the Inspector General of Police, I am not prepared to recommend any high powers to be given to the Deputy Commissioners beyond what has been allowed under the Police Regulation.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Mir Hamza Husein

Offg. Inspector General of Police.
